The Gersky Gazette

Tips, hints, and other fun stuff from Gersky's Catering and Event Planning

February 2005

Greetings!

Welcome to the NEW Gersky Gazette

Every month we'll be featuring an article we hope will be of interest to you. It could be a party planning tip, a cooking technique, a new resource, or even an interview with a local chef. Whatever the subject, we hope it will always be topical, informative, and entertaining.

Everyone at Gersky's is excited about the New Year. We've been working for months researching and testing new recipes and display ideas for you. Over then next few months we'll be updating our website with new photos, menus and other resources to help you plan your next event - whether it's a small dinner party or a gala wedding for 500.

Visited a great restaurant? Discovered a new and interesting food? Have a question for Joel? We'd love to hear from you. Click on the email link below.

No One Should be Entertaining Challenged

Does it ever seem to you as if certain people you know are just born hosts or hostesses, always effortlessly throwing perfect parties? Whether it comes naturally to them or not, people who throw great parties - either intimate gatherings or grand galas - follow a few basic principles that insure success. Here's the lowdown:

Valentine's Day

Or any other day you're feeling romantic...

There's lots of theories on the origin of Valentine's Day. Regardless of how we got to this lover's holiday, you know what's expected of you. You have to do something romantic for you wife, husband, girlfriend, boyfriend or any "significant other" you have, or else...

No problem, you say. Maybe we'll go out? But it's next to impossible to get a sitter for the kids. You think pizza or Chinese. No... That's not very romantic.

What do you do?

Recipe of the Month

The Superbowl is only a few days away. As you know, true football fans revere this day like no other. For the rest of us, it's another excuse to party!!

And what's a party without snack foods?? You could get the same old boring chips and beer. But noooo!! You're better than that. Try something new and different while you're waiting for another wardrobe malfunction.

Hmmmm...

Why does man kill? He kills for food. And not only food: frequently there must be a beverage. Woody Allen

A customer was bothering the waiter in a restaurant. First, he asked that the air conditioning be turned up because he was too hot, then he asked it be turned down because he was too cold, and so on for about half an hour.

Surprisingly, the waiter was very patient, he walked back and forth and never once got angry. So finally, a second customer asked him why he didn't throw out the pest.

"Oh, I really don't care or mind," said the waiter with a smile. "We don't even have an air conditioner."
