Greetings!

Did your New Years resolutions include learning something new? If so (or if not), here's your chance. Kitch n' Kaffe in Mahopac just announced their Spring cooking class schedule.

And of course, you don't want to miss our Kosher and Passover class on April 6th.

Also it's never too early to get your Passover plans in order. So pour yourself a glass of Manischewitz and enjoy this month's issue.

• Why is This Menu Different From All Other Menus?

Remember what Passover Seders were like when you were a kid? Your whole family would pile in the car and travel to your grandmother's house. As soon as you arrived, you knew great times were ahead. All your cousins were there playing with games and toys you had never seen. Your aunts and uncles talked about whatever grownups talked about back then.

And of course... the food. Mere words could not describe the aromas that filled the house from your grandmother's kitchen. Your mouth watered in anticipation of dinner.

Passover begins April 12th at sundown, so be sure to get your orders in soon.

Demystifying The Matzo Ball

Jewish culture and life certainly revolve around food, and there is no greater mystery in the cuisine universe than that of the matzo ball.

As we get closer to the Passover season, this strange spherical treat will become more and more present.

More to learn? Of course there is! Be sure to check out this fantastic class at Kitch n' Kaffe in Mahopac on April 6th, co-hosted by Howie and Rabbi Joshua Kalev from Temple Beth Shalom

J & M TUNES

From humble beginnings entertaining firemen 10 years ago, John and Mike, have grown J & M Tunes (get it?) to one of the most talented and respected entertainment companies in our area.

Mike says it's all about the client. Everyone at J & M Tunes, from the sales staff to the entertainers, know that pleasing the client is what it's all about.

Like most companies, J & M Tunes offers a variety of wedding and bar mitzvah packages for clients to choose from. Unlike other companies, they encourage their clients to customize the music and entertainment so that it blends perfectly with the theme and "personality" of their event. They're even one of only a few companies that offer country music.

All of J & M Tunes entertainers attend local training sessions and go to DJ conventions to keep current on all the latest music, dances, and games.

And they're not just entertainers. J & M Tunes provides invitations, balloons, decorations, party favors, and full event planning consultation to complete your event.

They book up early. To find out if they're available for your event call John, Mike, or Jen at 914-734-1414
