Greetings!

It's Passover time, and in this Special Edition Gazette we're featuring this year's Passover Menu.

We're also very excited about Thursday's cooking class at Kitch N' Kaffe on Kosher cooking, and the mysteries of the matzo ball.

Happy reading and eating - Howie, Joel, and Michelle

Demystifying The Matzo Ball

A significant part of Jewish culture revolves around food. Volumes have been written about it. Whether you're Jewish or not, understanding the rules, practices, and traditions behind kosher foods can sometimes be more than a little confusing.

Enjoy a fun-filled and informative evening with Rabbi Kalev from Temple Beth Shalom as he shares with you what the kosher rules are, why they're important, how they started thousands of years ago (it's probably not what you think), and how they can be applied today. He'll also talk about Jewish food traditions in different parts of the world and foods specific to the Passover holiday.

Howie will prepare delicious traditional Passover Foods including Matzo Ball Soup, Stuffed Chicken Breast, Sweet Potato Pancakes, and Passover Style Brownies. Howie's mom, Hilda, will share with you her secrets to creating the perfect Matzo Ball.

Thursday, April 6th (7:00pm-9:00pm)

Classes fill up quickly, so make your reservations soon. Classes are limited to 30 people and are held at Kitch n' Kaffe.
