The Gersky Gazette

Be the M.V.P of your S.B.P.

February 2010

As January winds to a close, that can only mean one thing, time to start gearing up to be the M.V.P. of your S.B.P. ("Super Bowl Party," that is).

If it's great food you're after, be sure to check out our menu for the big game, and don't forget about our friends at Planet Wings for great specials on your favorite game-time snack.

If you're on dessert duty however, then we have two great recipes for you this month. Bring either of our pies to the party and it'll surely be the "Most Valuable Pie!"

That's enough puns for this month - Happy reading and eating! - The Gersky's staff

This Month's Recipes

Great American Pies

Classic Apple Pie

There's nothing quite like a hot slice of homemade apple pie. This is the epitome of comfort food.

Coconut Cream Pie

Not just for the diner dessert case anymore. This recipe is so easy to make, you'll wonder why you never tried it before.

Video How-To

Make a Pie Crust

While you could use a mass-produced, frozen, pre-made pie crust for either of our great recipes this month, we recommend you watch this great video on how to make a deliciously flaky pie crust from scratch.

This Day in Food History

February 14th

February 14th, in addition to being Valentine's Day of course, is also the Chinese New Year.

- 1779 - Captain James Cook dies, a British explorer who charted and named many Pacific Islands, including the Sandwich Islands (now the Hawaiian Islands).
- 1886 - California oranges were first shipped east by rail.
